SPEAKER: Senator Kennedy.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Mr. President, fellow members there was amendment that was lost on there and it was handed in this morning, I would like unanimous consent to adopt this amendment and all the amendment does in simple language is to change from the one half to one which is agreed by both parties, I'm sure, there was no question about it, it makes it a uniform tax. Senator Kremer's committee is not here, but he agreed and knows what it is. I would ask that this be adopted.
